	Retirement & Pension	One of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Award letter,</li> <li>• one year personal tax return,</li> <li>• W-2 or 1099 form or</li> <li>• one month bank statement reflecting direct deposit</li> </ul>
	Social Security	One of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Award letter,</li> <li>• one year personal tax return,</li> <li>• Form SSA-1099, or</li> <li>• one month bank statement reflecting direct deposit.</li> </ul>
	Temporary Leave Income	Borrower to provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Written confirmation of his or her intent to return to work, and</li> <li>• No evidence or information from the borrower’s employer indicating that the borrower does not have the right to returns to work after the leave period.</li> </ul> NOTE: regardless of the date of return, the amount of the “regular employment income” the borrower received prior to the temporary leave must be used to qualify.
	All Other Income Types	Underwriter will determine appropriate documentation.  Examples include, but are not limited to: and award letter or equivalent documentation or agreement, one paystub or equivalent documentation, one year personal tax returns, IRS 1099 Form, or one month bank statement reflecting direct deposit.
NOTE: For refinance transactions, the lender may allow the MCC to remain in place as long as it obtains confirmation prior to loan closing from the MCC provider that the MCC remains in effect for the new mortgage loan. Copies of the MCC documents, including the reissue certification, must be maintained in the new mortgage loan file. NOTE: Borrowers MUST begin employment Prior to Funding. PBM must obtain a current paystub from the borrower that includes sufficient information to support income used to qualify the borrower.
HIGHER-PRICED LOAN REQUIREMENTS	Because DU is unable to determine if a DU is Refi Plus loan casefile is either a higher-priced mortgage loan or a higher-priced covered transaction under Regulation Z, PBM must make this determination.
FINANCING OF CLOSING COSTS	All closing costs, financing costs and prepaids/escrows can be financed. (no Limit)

PROPERTIES AFFECTED BY A DISASTER	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Fannie Mae will not require a property secured by a DU Refi Plus mortgage that was damaged as a result of a disaster to be repaired prior to delivery as long as the loan meets the property insurance requirements described in Chapter B7-3, Property and Flood Insurance.</li> <li>Therefore, an additional inspection and/or new appraisal of the property is not necessary after a disaster.</li> </ul>
Appraisal Options
OPTION ONE: PROPERTY FIELDWORK WAIVER	DU Refi Plus Property Valuation Requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The underwriter must comply with the property fieldwork requirements issued by DU. For certain DU Refi Plus loan casefiles, DU offers to waive the requirement for property fieldwork.</li> <li>For loan casefiles that are not eligible for a DU Refi Plus property fieldwork waiver, DU will require an appraisal based on an interior and exterior inspection reported on the appropriate appraisal report form for the type of property being appraised.</li> <li>If PBM exercises a property fieldwork waiver, PBM is not responsible for the standard representations and warranties related to the value, marketability, and condition of the property.</li> </ul> DU Refi Plus Property Fieldwork Waiver <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>When PBM exercises the DU Refi Plus property fieldwork waiver, Fannie Mae accepts the property value estimate submitted to DU as the market value for the subject property and as noted above, the underwriter is not required to make any representation or warranty as to value, marketability, or condition of the subject property</li> <li>The underwriter is required to represent and warrant that all of the information and data submitted to DU is complete and accurate.</li> <li>The property value the underwriter enters in DU may be based on:             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The underwriter's estimate of value, determined at the discretion of the underwriter, or</li> <li>The borrower's estimate of value</li> </ul> </li> <li>If DU does not offer a property fieldwork waiver, PBM must obtain an appraisal on the form specified in the DU Underwriting Findings report.</li> </ul> Note: DU will issue a message on DU Refi Plus loan casefiles when the subject property address cannot be standardized, or Fannie Mae's databases do not have sufficient information about the property to determine eligibility for the DU Refi Plus property fieldwork waiver. This message will state that based on the address and other information available to DU, the property is not eligible for a DU Refi Plus property fieldwork waiver. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The DU Refi Plus property fieldwork waiver may only be exercised if:             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The final submission of the loan casefile to DU resulted in a property fieldwork waiver offer, and</li> <li>The property fieldwork waiver offer is not more than four months old on the date of the note and the mortgage.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Fannie Mae specifically does not warrant that the estimated value used in the determination of eligibility for the DU Refi Plus property fieldwork waiver represents the actual value of the subject property</li> <li>If exercised, the DU Refi Plus property fieldwork waiver must include SFC 807 at delivery             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A $75.00 fee will no longer be charged for each exercised waiver.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

OPTION ONE: PROPERTY FIELDWORK WAIVER CONTINUED	DU Refi Plus: No New Appraisal Obtained When PBM does not obtain a new appraisal <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• PBM must advise the borrower not to rely on the lack of an appraisal as assurance about the condition or value of the property</li> <li>• PBM will not represent to the borrower or to any third party to the transaction that Fannie Mae or any third party performed a property review, appraisal, or valuation of any sort.             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ When using a field waiver you must not have any valuation information in the file.</li> </ul> </li> <li>• PBM cannot charge the borrower a fee for an appraisal, a collateral review, or any similar service as part of the new mortgage transaction             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ If the loan is initially disclosed with a full appraisal charge on the LE and a field waiver is then used, you may reduce the fee without a new LE or re disclosure.</li> <li>○ If the loan is initially disclosed with a field waiver charge on the LE and a full appraisal is then required you must do a change of circumstance to increase the fee to the actual appraisal fee on the LE and this may cause a need for re disclosure.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
OPTION TWO: NEW APPRAISAL	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• For loan casefiles that are not eligible for a DU Refi Plus property fieldwork waiver, DU will require an appraisal based on an interior and exterior inspection reported on the appropriate appraisal report form for the type of property being appraised.</li> <li>• When using a full appraisal the appraiser must confirm that the property is not currently listed.</li> <li>• When a full appraisal is used PBM is responsible for full Reps and warrants for that appraisal.</li> </ul>
SINGLE-FAMILY COMPARABLE RENT SCHEDULE (FORM 1007)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• For DU Refi Plus refinances of an investment property, the underwriter is not required to obtain a Form 1007 if the borrower is using rental income to qualify.</li> <li>• Underwriters may disregard the DU message that requires this form</li> </ul> Note: Underwriters must report gross monthly rent in the loan delivery data for all investment properties and two- to four-unit principal residence properties, regardless of whether the borrower is using rental income to qualify for the mortgage loan.
BORROWER BENEFIT REQUIREMENT	At least one of the following benefits is required: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A reduced monthly mortgage principal and interest payment</li> <li>• A more stable mortgage product</li> <li>• A reduction in the interest rate, or</li> <li>• A reduction in the amortization term</li> </ul> Example: The amortization term is extended (for example, from 15 to 30 years) resulting in a reduction in the principal and interest payment Note: an extension of the amortization term is not considered movement to a more stable product Example: The mortgage loan type changes from a fixed-rate to an ARM provided there is a reduction in the principal and interest payment Note: Movement from a fixed-rate mortgage to an ARM is not considered a movement to a more stable mortgage product. The borrower should be encouraged to refinance to a fixed-rate mortgage whenever possible. Fixed-rate mortgages are required if the LTV ratio exceeds 105%

BORROWER BENEFIT REQUIREMENT CONTINUED	Example: the principal and interest payment is staying the same or increasing provided the borrower is moving to a shorter term mortgage or more stable mortgage product Note: DU does not make the determination that the DU Refi Plus transaction will benefit the borrower. The underwriter must determine this outside of DU
HARDEST HIT FUND PROGRAMS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Housing Finance Agencies (HFAs) have established programs utilizing Hardest Hit Fund (HHF) programs, which provide funding for various purposes, including funds for principal curtailment, to help homeowners obtain more affordable mortgages or to help homeowners retain their homes. Each participating HFA establishes its own eligibility guidelines for borrower participation and approves the provision of the funds</li> <li>• Fannie Mae permits grant-like unsecured financing provided to the borrower through an HFA's HHF program for the purpose of paying down the unpaid principal balance at the time of closing resulting in a lower new loan amount. The HHFs may also be sued for the payment of closing costs. The following requirements apply to HHFs:             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ The funds must be reflected in the Uniform Residential Loan Application (Form 1003 or 1003(S)) (and in the online loan application for DU Refi Plus) in Section VII, Details of Transaction as an Other Credit</li> <li>○ The loan file must be documented with a copy of the promissory note or other documentation specifying the terms and conditions of the loan. If the promissory note (or other documentation) indicates that repayment of the HHF funds is expected, the monthly payment must be included in the debt-to-income (DTI) ratio, unless repayment is only due upon sale or default</li> <li>○ The transfer of the loan proceeds must be reflected on the settlement statement</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The underwriter does not need to confirm the subject property is not currently listed for sale.</li> <li>• There are no limits on the number of financed properties the borrower may own.             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ The additional eligibility requirements for borrowers with multiple financed properties do not apply.</li> <li>○ Special Feature Code 150 must not be delivered even if the Refi Plus mortgage loan otherwise meets the requirements of SFC 150</li> </ul> </li> <li>• If using field waiver no other valuation tool can be included in the loan package.</li> <li>• Hazard Insurance and Flood Insurance must be paid current.</li> <li>• All loans must be registered with MERS. (new loan)</li> <li>• Loans with Multiple DU Runs that exceed 12 or for loans where the DU is run after funding require a letter of explanation from the underwriter.</li> </ul>

DOCUMENTATION LOAN FILE CONTENTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Must be delivered with Special Feature Code 147 “DU Refi Plus Loan”</li> <li>• A new executed, complete Uniform Residential Loan Application (Form 1003)</li> <li>• A new merged credit report with the borrowers “representative” credit score</li> <li>• A new mortgage note, security instrument, and applicable riders and addenda are required for each new mortgage loan.</li> <li>• Subordination agreement, if required along with a copy of the note of subordinate financing.</li> <li>• Title policy and applicable Endorsements</li> <li>• Tax transcripts are required for each borrower whose income is utilized as a source of repayment. The most recent available tax transcripts are required to support the income used to qualify the borrower. If only W2 income is used to qualify, W2 transcripts may be obtained as long as the tax returns are not included in the loan file. When documentation used to verify income is from the same calendar period as the tax transcripts, the information must match exactly. However, if the income documentation is from the current calendar year and the transcript is from the prior year, there can be acceptable variances to qualifying income. If this variance exceeds 20%, provide documentation and/or commentary for the rational for using current income. If tax transcripts are not available (due to a recent filing) a copy of the IRS notice showing “No record of return filed” is required along with documented acknowledgement receipt (such as IRS officially stamped tax returns or evidence that the return was electronically received) from the IRS and the previous year’s tax transcript</li> <li>• A 4506-T signed at application and closing is required on all transactions.</li> </ul>
